Experience

Sam commenced work with Kell Moore in August 2018 and had previously worked in Melbourne, Sydney and London.

Sam has broad expertise in business, corporate and intellectual property matters in private practice for over 10 years. Sam also has in-house experience working for some of Australia's leading sporting organisations and in the mining, oil and gas industry.

His areas of practice are primarily:

- Contract advice (of various types including asset sales and acquisitions, partnerships and ventures and other property and business-related activities)
- Intellectual Property
- Leasing
- Business transactions
- Advice on funding and finance activities
- Corporate transactions including share issues, transfers and buybacks.

Some of Sam's matters include:

- Advising clients on a broad range of legal issues relating to intellectual property, competition and consumer law in the retail and commercial sector;
- Business structure advice involving matters regarding company and various trust formations, tax minimisation strategies, estate planning and next of kin disability entitlements;
- Preparing and reviewing a variety of commercial contracts;

- Acting for SME's in general commercial disputes;
- Leasing and licencing matters in both New South Wales and Victorian jurisdictions; and
- Advising on the sale and purchase of business.
